North Carolina

WHEREAS, 4-H youth across the nation are leading efforts to solve problems in their communities and make a difference for their futures; and

WHEREAS, 4-H is the largest youth development organization in North Carolina and the largest in the nation with over six million participants; and

WHEREAS, 4-H in North Carolina claims 218,669 youth members and 21,413 volunteers, while Haywood County's 4-H program numbers more than 300 members and more than 30 volunteers; and

WHEREAS, 4-H as part of the NC Cooperative Extension System of NC State University and NCA&T State University is a program where youth learn through opportunities that provide them hands-on experiences in 4-H's mission mandates of science, engineering and technology; healthy living; and citizenship; and

WHEREAS, 4-H has connected youth and their communities with the innovative research and resources from our nation's 106 land-grant universities and colleges for more than 101 years; and

THEREFORE, the Haywood County Board of Commissioners does hereby proclaim October 2 - 8, 2011, as National 4-H Week in Haywood County. Furthermore, the Board of Commissioners urges the people of this community to take advantage of the opportunity to become more aware of this special program that enhances our young people's interests in their futures as part of Haywood County 4-H Youth Development and to join us in recognizing the unique partnership between our County and our state University System.

Adopted this 3rd day of October, 2011.
