Program Narrative

This grant is intended to address current the shortfall of funding for ballistic and tactical entry vests.

Program Objectives include:

Enhancing officer safety by providing current and up-to date, NIJ standard ballistic vests to provide lifesaving equipment.

Providing officers with custom fitted and form fitted vest. This will allow officers to move and perform more effectively and efficiently. Also, with the improvement in heat and sweat wicking technology will allow officers to remain healthier and comfortable during long shifts.

All uniformed officers will be required to wear the appropriate vest for his specific job function. No deviation will be made from this policy or performance measure.

Grant Activities and Reports:

All expenditures will be tracked via generally accepted accounting principles of Haywood County government.

All expenditures will be made immediately after funds are drawn down to Haywood County accounts.

All goals and objectives should be completed within one year of fund draw down.

Performance measures for safety related enhancements will be based on reports made by the individual officers and surveys conducted by the leadership of the Haywood County Sheriff's Office.

| 12. AREAS AFFECTED BY PROJECT Haywood County is a 555 square mile county with a population of approximately 59,400 citizens annually. Haywood County is the third largest county in western North Carolina after Buncombe and Henderson Counties. Approximately 50 miles of the historic Blue Ridge Parkway travels through Haywood County, with an estimated 15 million visitors traveling the Parkway annually. Haywood County is also the home of the I-40 corridor coming into North Carolina and is also a main thoroughfare for Atlanta, Asheville, and Cherokee. The Haywood County Sheriff's Office is responsible for all calls for service in the county other than the four separate jurisdictions: Waynesville (County seat), Maggie Valley, Canton, and Clyde. Those jurisdictional areas make up approximately 16000 of the county's population. The Sheriff's Office have a great working relationship with these agencies and have mutual aid agreements with all of them. | | | |
